Frank Edward Edmonds is considered extremely violent and an imminent public threat. During his confinement at the UCLA Harbor General Mental Health Facility, Edmonds made several disturbing comments to staff that he was thinking about killing school children and then ending his life in a suicide by cop scenario.

He was released on 5/6/13. Edmonds has a lengthy criminal history with convictions that include: Assault with a Deadly Weapon (ADW), multiple Batteries, multiple Resisting Arrests, Forgery, DUI, Vandalism and many parole violations. He has served three (3) prior prison terms, the longest term being 6 years for ADW. He is currently has an Active Warrant for Case No. YA084117 for Obstruct/Resist Arrest on which he is on 3 years Formal Probation. He also has a pending Battery case.

His recent threats and prior history of violence make him a person of interest by the Los Angeles County Probation Department and Inglewood Police Department.
